Sex Offender Registry Guidelines

It is your responsibility to register, in person, with the Virginia State Police, or your local law enforcement agency within the jurisdiction you reside and submit a new SP-236 registration form with prints in the following instances:

- Every person required to register shall register in person within 3 days of his release from confinement in a state, local or juvenile correctional facility, in a state civil commitment program for sexually violent predators or, if a sentence of confinement is not imposed, within three days of suspension of the sentence or in the case of a juvenile of disposition.
- Within 3 days of receiving an additional conviction or suspended sentence for a charge listed on the back of Form SP-236.
- Within 3 days of a change in residence or mailing address within Virginia, including if you become homeless.
- Within 10 days prior to change in residence if moving outside of Virginia.
- Within 3 days of legally changing your name through a court order.
- Within 3 days of a change in employment regardless if employment is in or outside of Virginia. This applies if you change jobs, or become unemployed, retired, disabled, laid-off, or start or end a second, or more jobs.

- Within 3 days of release from a correctional facility, jail, or community supervision (probation and parole).
- Within 3 days of a change in owned vehicle registration information (includes changing license plate numbers, buying, trading, selling or otherwise disposing of any vehicle you own or have your name on the title). This includes watercraft and aircraft.
- Within 3 days of enrolling in, quitting, or graduating from an institution of higher learning. This includes any post-secondary school, trade school, or professional institution of higher education.
- Within 30 minutes of any change in, or addition to, your email address information, any instant message or chat screen name, or other Internet electronic communication name or identity information that you use or intend to use. This can be done in person or electronically with the local law enforcement agency where your residence is located (An SP-236 still needs to be submitted within 3 days, due to the change in status).
- Every 2 years commencing with the date of initial registration, submit to be photographed by the Virginia State Police or your local law enforcement agency.

- Registered sex offenders who are classified as Sexual must re-register with the authorities once per year. A conviction of failure to register will change this to every 180 days.
- Registered sex offenders who are classified as Sexually Violent must re-register with the authorities every 90 days. A conviction of failure to register will change this to every 30 days.

International Travel

A registrant is required to inform their residence jurisdiction of any intended travel outside of the U.S. at least 21 days prior to that travel. Information you need to provide is found at: http://www.smart.gov/international_travel.htm

Once you provide the information to your appropriate law enforcement official, state trooper, compliance officer, or probation/parole officer, it will be transmitted to the United States Marshals Service.
