Registration Forms

Always review the entire form (SP-236; SP-236 A, SP-236 B, SP-236 C) for accuracy BEFORE signing. If information on any SP-236 is not correct, advise the official completing the form that it needs to be corrected. Providing false information on any SP-236 may result in being charged with §18.2-472.1 of the Code of Virginia. This is punishable as a Class 5 or 6 Felony, or a Class 1 Misdemeanor, as applicable.

Sex offenders in emergency shelters; notification registration. Provides that a registered sex offender who enters an emergency shelter designated by the Commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof and operated in response to a declared state or local emergency shall, as soon as practicable after entry, notify a member of the shelter's staff who is responsible for providing security of such person's status as a registered sex offender. This bill provides that no person shall be denied entry solely on the basis of his status as a sex offender unless such entry is otherwise prohibited by law. The bill requires that the Department of State Police provide to any registered sex offender at the time of his initial registration a summary of his obligation to inform the staff of an emergency shelter of his status as a registered sex offender.

If you have any questions or concerns about your Registry requirements, contact the appropriate Sex Offender Investigative Unit Trooper or Compliance Officer, or your Probation/Parole Officer prior to contacting the Sex Offender Registry Helpdesk at 804-674-2825. The Helpdesk is available Monday through Friday 8:15am – 4:45pm.

Sex Offender Registry Guidelines

It is your responsibility to register, in person, with the Virginia State Police, or your local law enforcement agency within the jurisdiction you reside and submit a new SP-236 registration form with prints in the following instances:

Every person required to register shall register in person within 3 days of his release from confinement in a state, local or juvenile correctional facility, in a state civil commitment program for sexually violent predators or, if a sentence of confinement is not imposed, within three days of suspension of the sentence or in the case of a juvenile of disposition.

Within 3 days of receiving an additional conviction or suspended sentence for a charge listed on the back of Form SP-236.

Within 3 days of a change in residence or mailing address within Virginia, including if you become homeless.

Within 10 days prior to change of residence if moving outside of Virginia.

Within 3 days of a change in employment, regardless if employment is in or outside of Virginia. This applies if you change jobs, or become unemployed, are retired, disabled, laid-off, or start or end a second, or more jobs.

Within 3 days of release from a correctional facility, jail, or community supervision (probation and parole).

Within 3 days of legally changing your name through a court order.

Within 3 days of a change in owned vehicle registration information (includes changing license plate numbers, buying, trading, selling or otherwise disposing of any vehicle you own or have your name on the title). This includes watercraft and aircraft.

Within 3 days of enrolling in, quitting, or graduating from an institution of higher learning. This includes any post-secondary school, trade school, or professional institution of higher education.

Within 30 minutes of any change in, or addition to, your email address information, any instant message or chat screen name, or other Internet electronic communication name or identity information that you use or intend to use. This can be done electronically by submitting the information by e-mail to sor.electronic@vsp.virginia.gov. The instructions for submitting information electronically are listed on the SOR page under the "Change of Electronic Communication" Tab. This may also be done in person with a local law enforcement agency where your residence is located, by submitting an SP-236, with the new information, to the Sex Offender Registry.

Every 2 years commencing with the date of initial registration, submit to be photographed by the Virginia State Police or your local law enforcement agency.

Registered sex offenders who are classified as Tier I and Tier II (formerly Sexual) must re-register with the authorities once per year. A conviction of failure to register will change this to twice a year. A member of the Virginia State Police Sex Offender Unit or probation and parole will complete this registration in person. No letter will be mailed.

Registered sex offenders who are classified as Tier III must re-register with the authorities every 90 days. A conviction of failure to register will change this to every 30 days.

If you register every 90 days, you will receive your letter beginning on your birth month and then every third month after and according to the date schedule. (See below) If you register every 30 days you will register according to the date schedule each month. (See Below)

Registration letters will be mailed to Tier III offenders at the address listed on the Sex Offender Registry Website. The letters (SP-236A) will be mailed to the offender based on the following schedule:

Provide the completed travel form to your appropriate law enforcement official, state trooper, compliance officer, or probation/parole officer, who will transmit the form to the United States Marshals Service.

Scam

Those on the Sex Offender Registry are routinely targeted by scammers who claim to be a law enforcement officer advising they have failed to register or missed a probation appointment and are now wanted in Virginia. Scammers are advising those on the Registry that they are now subject to large fines.

Remember: Those required to register will never receive a call requesting money in order to avoid being taken into custody.
